

Appendix A. List of items and domains

Domain	Item (Source)
Age	I feel too old to start having children (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Age (Connidis & McMullin, 1996) Too old (Miettinen, 2010) Partner too old (Miettinen, 2010) You and/or your husband/partner felt you were too old to have a child (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Badparent	Don't think I would make a suitable parent due to my personality (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Fear of not being a good parent (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) Would not be a good parent (Miettinen, 2010) Feels too immature (Miettinen, 2010)
Dislike	Don't enjoy being around children (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Not liking children (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) I don't like children (Glass & Fraley, 2025) They don't really like children (Minkin, Horowitz, & Aragão, 2024) They don't really like children (Minkin et al., 2024) Dislike for children; not sure good parent (Silka & Kiesler, 1977)
Dontwant	The task of raising a child just does not hold a lot of interest for me (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Lack of maternal/paternal instinct (Avison & Furnham, 2015) No parental instinct (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) They just don't/didn't want to (Minkin et al., 2024) They just don't/didn't want to (Minkin et al., 2024) Your husband/partner would have liked a child, but you did not (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Economic	Having a child is expensive (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Finances (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) Altruism/Practical (Connidis & McMullin, 1996) Financial reasons (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Uncertain employment situation (Miettinen, 2010) Uncertain economical situation (Miettinen, 2010) Not enough support from the society (Miettinen, 2010) Uncertain employment, partner (Miettinen, 2010) Too small an apartment (Miettinen, 2010) Can't/Couldn't afford to raise a child (Minkin et al., 2024) Can't/Couldn't afford to raise a child (Minkin et al., 2024) Economic concerns (Silka & Kiesler, 1977) You needed to work to make ends meet and with a child it would have been impossible to continue (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008) It was too costly to have a child (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
World	Concern about bringing a child into the world due to the current/future state of society or the environment (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Concern that the world is overpopulated (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Global problems (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) Worried about the state of the world (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Environmental reasons (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Concerned about the future of children (Miettinen, 2010) Concerns about the state of the world (Minkin et al., 2024) Concerns about the environment (Minkin et al., 2024) Concerns about the state of the world (Minkin et al., 2024) Concerns about the environment (Minkin et al., 2024) Worry; Social problems (Silka & Kiesler, 1977)
Fate	Fate (just the way things happened) (Connidis & McMullin, 1996) It just never happened (Minkin et al., 2024)
Freedom	Having a child would restrict my freedom/independence (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Autonomy (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) To keep my freedom (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Doesn't want to be tied to children (Miettinen, 2010) Opportunities and freedom (Silka & Kiesler, 1977)

Domain	Item (Source)
Health	Concern about the risk/pain involved in pregnancy/childbirth (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Risk of having a child with mental/physical disabilities (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Concern about the physical effects of childbirth on my body/partner's body (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Possibility of passing on a genetic condition (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Biological difficulties/infertility (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Fears of pregnancy (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024)
	Mental health reasons (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	Health reasons related to me/my partner (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	Health reasons related to the potential child (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	Health reasons (Miettinen, 2010)
	Infertility or other medical reasons (Minkin et al., 2024)
	Infertility or other medical reasons (Minkin et al., 2024)
	You and/or your husband/partner had to look after relatives with serious health problem (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
	You and/or your husband/partner had serious health problems (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Career	Concern about the effect of children on my career (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	To focus on my career (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	Career opportunities (Miettinen, 2010)
	Finish education, partner (Miettinen, 2010)
	Finish education (Miettinen, 2010)
	Career opportunities, partner (Miettinen, 2010)
	Wife's job or career (Silka & Kiesler, 1977)
	With a child you would have had to make professional sacrifices and your job is important not only economically (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
	With a child your husband/partner would have had to make job-career sacrifices (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Lifestyle	Having a child would restrict my lifestyle (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	There are other ways to find self-fulfillment which I prefer to focus on (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	I feel I can make a better contribution to society/the world by not having children (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Own development (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024)
	Self-actualization (hedonism) (Connidis & McMullin, 1996)
	Children are incompatible with my lifestyle or life goals (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	To avoid losing my personal identity (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	Would have to give up life style (Miettinen, 2010)
	Want to do other things (Miettinen, 2010)
	They want/wanted to focus on other things (Minkin et al., 2024)
	They want/wanted to focus on other things (Minkin et al., 2024)
	Leisure, travel (Silka & Kiesler, 1977)
	You would have had to sacrifice too many things (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Partner	My spouse/partner doesn't want children (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Have not/did not meet a suitable partner with whom to have children (Avison & Furnham, 2015)
	Sexual orientation (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024)
	Being single (never married) (Connidis & McMullin, 1996)
	Spouse objected/Already had children/absent (Connidis & McMullin, 1996)
	I don't have/don't think I will have a partner to have children with (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	My partner doesn't want children (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
	No partner (Miettinen, 2010)
	Haven't found/Didn't find the right partner (Minkin et al., 2024)
	A spouse or partner who doesn't/didn't want to have children (Minkin et al., 2024)
	Haven't found/Didn't find the right partner (Minkin et al., 2024)
	A spouse or partner who doesn't/didn't want to have children (Minkin et al., 2024)
	You and/or your husband/partner often lived apart for study or work reasons (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
	The relationship ended soon after the beginning of marriage/cohabitation (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
	You would have liked a child, but your husband/partner did not (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)

Domain	Item (Source)
Peace	I like a peaceful home-life and children would impact upon this (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Peace (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024)
Philosophy	I like children, but only occasionally or in ,Äúsmall doses,Äù (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Philosophies (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) Other philosophical reasons (Glass & Fraley, 2025)
Relationship	Having a child might negatively affect my relationship with partner (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Concerned that childcare/domestic duties would be unequally shared between myself and partner (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Worried about children negatively impacting my relationship with my partner (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Problems in partnership (Miettinen, 2010) More time with spouse (Silka & Kiesler, 1977) The relationship as a couple was not all that strong (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Responsibility	Bringing up a child is a huge responsibility (Avison & Furnham, 2015) I think caring for a child would cause me too much worry/stress (Avison & Furnham, 2015) I feel I would not have enough time to give to a child (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Responsibility (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) Avoid responsibility (Silka & Kiesler, 1977) Manage work load (Silka & Kiesler, 1977) You and your partner would not have had enough time to look after a child properly (Tanturri & Mencarini, 2008)
Upbringing	Don't think I would make a suitable parent due to my upbringing (Avison & Furnham, 2015) Bad experiences from childhood (Ciesielski & Bakiera, 2024) To end the cycle of abuse (Glass & Fraley, 2025) Negative experiences with their own family growing up (Minkin et al., 2024) Negative experiences with their own family growing up (Minkin et al., 2024)